FOUR UNUSUAL OPERA SCORES

PRICE $6.00 EACH

IN THE PASHA'S GARDEN
by John Laurence Seymour

A one-act opera first produced at the Metropolitan Opera House in 1934 during the famous era between 1906 and 1937 in which the impresario Giulio Gatti-Casazza directed every effort in an endeavor to establish American operatic music on a sound basis.

DONNA JUANITA by Franz von Suppe (Revised by Artur Bodanzky)

A comic opera from the pen of one of its most famous exponents, "Donna Juanita" was first produced at the Metropolitan Opera House in 1931 in its present revised form under Bodanzky's direction. The revision and excellent English translation bring a new and enlivened investiture.

MERRY MOUNT by Howard Hanson

One of the most oustanding of purely American operas, "Merry Mount" received its first performance at the Metropolitan Opera House in 1934. The book, by Robert Stokes, is based on Hawthorne's "The Maypole of Merry Mount". The work is superlative musically and dramatically, and remains a high-water mark in the field of contemporary operatic literature.

PARSIFAL by Richard Wagner (English version by Henry E. Krehbiel)

At the instigation of Artur Bodanzky, when, during the last war German opera was sung at the Metropolitan Opera House in English, the dean of American music critics was invited to fashion a singable English version to this greatest of the Wagner music-dramas. It is the only English setting which has succeeded in public performance. The piano reduction is the authentic Kleinmichel arrangement.
